Ladies

Kelly Dunn — Kristina and Kelly became fast friends after they met when Kristina moved to Battle Creek, MI, in 1997. After three fun-filled years, they moved to Bloomington within the same month and continued their adventures. From boating on Goguaac Lake to a girls-only trip to New York City, Kristina can't imagine how different (and boring!) her life would have been without Kelly in it. Kristina can turn to Kelly for anything, and knows that Kelly is always there for her. Kristina admires Kelly's character, her entertaining talents, and the way she makes everyone feel that they are special to her. Kristina was thrilled to stand up with Kelly when she married Terry last year, and is so happy that Kelly is standing with her today. Kristina looks forward to many more years of friendship with Kelly!

Kristin McClure — Kristina and Kristin met 20 years ago in the seventh grade and have been great friends ever since. Volleyball, cheerleading, band, Winter Guard, college, Michigan visits, trips to Kristin's parents home in Indiana — so many of Kristina's memories have Kristin in them! Kristina admires Kristin's dedication to her husband, David, and her children, Kaelynn and Carter, and her way of always still finding time for her friends and her hobbies. Kristin is always willing to lend an ear if you need to talk or to lend a hand if you need help. Kristina is so lucky to have a friend in Kristin and is very happy to have her with her as she begins this next chapter in her life!

Laura Clark — Kristina and Laura met their sophomore year in high school and have remained good friends even though they haven't lived in the same town since 1990. It makes Kristina very happy to know that anytime she and Laura visit in person or on the phone they always pick up right where they left off! Laura has a great attitude about life — she is very laid-back and truly enjoys time spent with family and friends. Laura has a strong spirit, and Kristina admires her for it. Kristina is so happy that Laura could be with her today and looks forward to sharing each other's experiences for many more years to come!

Becky Rariden — Kristina and Becky met after Becky was hired by State Farm's Marshall, MI, office in 1998. They often spent time together while they were in Michigan, but became even closer after Becky moved to Bloomington six months after Kristina did. Kristina was very happy to be with Becky when she married KC just this past August, and is happy that Becky is with her today! Kristina thinks a lot of Becky's fun-loving outlook about life, respects her dedication to her family, and is proud of her commitment to continuing her education. Kristina is excited about what the future will bring for them both!

Cindy Rohlen — Cindy is Brad's older — and only — sister. Growing up, Cindy and Brad's relationship was questionable at best. They definitely had their share of fights. It's funny how things change as we get older. They now have an excellent relationship — sharing very similar interests and a bizarre sense of humor. Cindy is a very caring person and Brad knows he can always turn to her. He is proud of the person she has become. She is an excellent mother and wife and has pure heart. Brad knows she's protective of her little brother and wants nothing but the best for him. He admires her total devotion to family and her fun and happy attitude even in the most stressful situations.

Gentlemen

Scott Dankel — Brad has been friends with Scott since the third grade. They spent many days at the arcade and have been accused a time or two of playing with fire(works). They had a lot of fun growing up. Scott has always been a great friend to Brad; supportive and encouraging without ever judging. Scott has always been mature for his age while having a free and easy spirit about him. He's a very humble person. Brad has always admired these qualities about him. They lost touch for several years after Scott moved north, but a few years back they reunited thanks to yahoo! In the past few years Brad feels their friendship has been stronger than ever. Brad is proud of the person Scott has become.

Brad Hicks — Brad C. and Brad H. hit it off instantly as freshmen in high school. They share probably the strangest sense of humor they know, but they are in sync. Brad C. thinks Brad H. is one of the most intelligent people he knows. He definitely is a wealth of information; kind of like a human reference book. Brad C. is constantly amazed by Brad H's memory and diversity of interests. Brad C. admires his optimism and easy-going demeanor. Brad H. is a very close friend and Brad C. knows he can confide in him. He's always been there for Brad C. — even if it's to ride rollercoasters — and he is thankful for that.

Brad Rohlen — Brad R. is a great person — the best thing that ever happened to Brad C's sister, Cindy. Brad C. is proud Brad R. is his brother-in-law, even though he considers him to be his brother. Brad R. is a wonderful father and husband. Whenever Brad C. visits their family in North Carolina, Brad R. goes out of his way to make him feel at home and show him around. Despite how busy he is, Brad R. always makes time for his family and to have fun. Brad C. admires Brad R's energy and his sense of adventure. How he can manage to squeeze more time out of the average day is incredible.

Nathan Kirby — Nathan is Kristina's younger brother by less than 2 years. That meant that they were close in school, and often ended up hanging out at the same places with the same groups of friends. That still happens today! Kristina looks up to her younger brother — literally — and admires his passion for his hobbies — especially cars! Nathan seems to have a way of making Kristina laugh, and she admires his dedication to his family and friends and his laid-back approach to life. Kristina is glad that Nathan is standing up with her and Brad today.

Brian Kirby — Brian is Kristina's youngest and tallest brother. But, she looks up to him in more ways than just height! Brian has a good soul, and he and Kristina have become even closer since Brian moved to Florida in 2001. Kristina and Brian are a lot alike, and are both very committed to their family and friends. Kristina thinks a lot of Brian's outlook on life and his generous nature. Kristina is proud of the person Brian has become, and is very happy that he is with her and Brad today.

Troy Johnson — Troy went through Graphic Design school with Brad and they currently work with each other at State Farm. Troy is one of the most talented designers Brad knows and he is proud to work with him. Brad admires Troy's creativity and passion for fun. He's always the life of the party. Troy has a heart of gold, too. He's very sincere and reliable. Brad has a lot of respect for Troy despite all the grief he gives him at work.

Patrick Smith — Brad met Pat in Design school as well. They took several classes together and helped make it fun. They kept in touch after graduation while Pat was working in Chicago. Brad lived vicariously through him as Pat worked for several design firms there. Pat is a very talented designer and he was a good fit for the pace of Chicago. It seems they only get to see each other about once a year, but they do talk regularly. Brad has always admired Pat's willingness to accept change. He's a good friend and Brad is proud of what Pat has achieved.
